TEAM BUILDING THEMED DINNERS MARQUEES ACTIVITIES CONFERENCE & INCENTIVE MANAGEMENT

Launch your new product in Queenstown

Another new product launch came to Queenstown this summer and was incorporated into HQ's Great Race team building programme with fantastic results. The cryptic clues led teams to mystery locations all over Queenstown where the company's sales and marketing team staged New Product Presentations. Delegates then had to complete a team building challenge before they could qualify for their next clue. Perfect Queenstown weather coupled with the teams' competitive spirit ensured that the marketing message was received effectively and in a fun and unique manner. Talk to the HQ team today about new ways to motivate and educate your sales force.

Spectacular new DVD footage for Peak Teams

HQ's new team development programme, Peak Teams, continues to deliver its effective and engaging message all over the world. Rob and some of the other facilitators found time in April to film some more exciting footage for it up on the Fox Glacier, climbing Mt Haidinger. Find out how Peak Teams can deliver real results in leadership and teamwork wherever your conference may be. Call Rob now, email him on rob@hqnz.co.nz or meet with him at Meetings 07 in Auckland later this month.

Looking for a really exclusive and distinct dining option?

For total privacy and ultimate luxury, your group can be wined and dined at a unique penthouse apartment or country residence. Our chefs will commandeer the kitchen to produce a top restaurant-quality dinner whilst the guests soak up the splendour of their elite surroundings and marvel at the awesome views. Why not really spoil your guests with a liveried doorman and butler to welcome and attend to them all evening? Include a sultry solo jazz diva and truly make this a night to remember. Contact us now about the wide range of properties available for this.

It's Hell out there!!

Another new theme was created recently and used for participants of the 2007 'Devils Run' - a road adventure for luxury and performance car enthusiasts. Their Grand Finale ball was a "Hell of a Night" at Queenstown's Millbrook Resort. The blacked interior, lit with a fiery red glow had focal points of a menacing 'Hell's Gate' and a triptych of fire. Bring in the spiky mataguari and waxy red antherium centrepieces and the specially designed menus and HQ's Hell theme is complete. Perhaps not the most appropriate theme for an awards dinner but perfect for a wicked night of fun!

HQ New Zealand team news...

Somehow the ever busy team at HQ found time this summer for the management team - Amanda, Rachael and Louise - to train and compete in the Lake Hayes Triathlon and for our directorial team, Rob and Michelle, to have their second boy, Bayley. Born in Queenstown on 11 Feb, Bayley has a few things to learn about sleeping at night and feeding during the day... but he's so cute that we can forgive him anything.
