The Great Race – the latest craze in Team Building

First there was Survivor, now it's the Great Race! HQ have put together a new program which makes use of the wild and wacky activities only available in Queenstown while teams answer a series of clues.

With the clock ticking teams had the challenge of finding HQ staff, dressed as local and fictional characters and personalities, in eight sequential Mystery Locations. Teams employed creativity and cunning, along with taxis, limousines, gondolas, some random hitchhiking and lots of 'street wisdom' in their quest to win the game.

At each Mystery Location teams biked, rafted, navigated and sleuthed their way through a series of Adventurous Tasks

Queenstown – Lord of the Rings Country

You simply can't come to Queenstown without being caught up in some of the hype of Lord of the Rings, with the awesome scenery here that inspired Peter Jackson. As well as taking in plenty of that famous scenery, compliment your conference or incentive trip with a special themed dinner. From a magically themed room to a fully choreographed performance complete with Black Riders, Elves, Hobbits and Wizards, HQ will put together a truly professional event.

Scottish Events

Our newest event this year is based on the influence of our Scottish heritage in the Otago region. The marquee is set in elegant banquet style with props of amour and castle features. But the night is about entertainment. The eerie sound of the bagpipes as your haggis is piped in by the Queenstown Pipe Band. A traditional blessing follows with plenty of music & dancing to follow. Queenstown offers several locations reminiscent of Scottish countryside to hold this impressive event.
